YWCA Elgin ESL Program is an equal opportunity educator and employer. For the purposes of compliance with section 511 of P.L. 101-166 (the Stevens Amendment), approximately 40% of the funding for this program comes from federal sources. This project was made possible by a grant awarded by the Illinois State Library (ISL), a division of the Office of Secretary of State, using state funds designated for literacy. Additional thanks to The Kane County Riverboat Foundation and The United Way of Elgin for funding that makes this program possible.
